

Social Services

211 is here to help

211 is a three-digit phone number and website that provides information and referral to community and social services in Ontario. Our Certified Information and Referral Specialists are caring, understanding and knowledgeable, and pride themselves on their ability to connect you with the services you need.

With information on more than 56,000 agencies and services, we can help you find the answers you need, quickly and easily. Our phone service is open 24 hours a day, every day of the year, and is available in more than 150 languages.

Find the information you need at <http://www.211ontario.ca/>

What kind of services can 211 tell me about?

- abuse (including sexual assault)
- child and family services
- consumer protection and complaints
- emergency and crisis services
- employment, education and training
- financial assistance
- food and clothing
- general community services
- government officials
- health
- homelessness
- housing
- legal issues
- multicultural associations
- seniors
- settlement and newcomer services
- youth services

Lanark County Resource Card

Emergency 24 Hour Service, Police, Fire, or Ambulance - call 911

This resource list/card was developed by the Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Advisory Committee of Lanark County a partnership of agencies and individuals working together to prevent sexual and domestic violence in our community

Lanark County Resource Card