Recreational Youth Program

Located at the Carambeck Community Centre, this program is available to children 10 -14 years of age. It is High Five accredited and it focuses on fun and encouraging children's independence while still providing supervision.

The cost is $12.20 for either a morning or afternoon session and $33.50 per day during the summer. The children have help with homework, do group recreational activities, field trips and have young leadership opportunities. If you would like more information please call (613)257-2824 ext 5200. Child care subsidies are also available for children up to 12 years of age who qualify.
